I heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight...

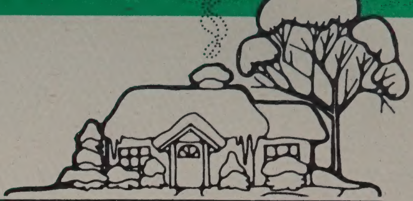
A Genealogist's Christmas Eve



'Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even my spouse.

The dining room table with clutter was spread with pedigree charts and with letters which said...

"Too bad about the data for which you wrote Sank in a storm on an ill-fated boat."

Stacks of old copies of wills and the such were proof that my work had become much too much.

Our children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugarplums danced in their heads.

And I at my table was ready to drop
From work on my album with photos to crop.

Christmas was here, and of such was my lot
That presents and goodies and toys I'd forgot.

Had I not been so busy with grandparents' wills,
I'd not have forgotten to shop for such thrills.

While others had bought gifts that would bring Christmas cheer,
I'd spent time researching those birthdates and years.

While I was thus musing about my sad plight,
A strange noise on the lawn gave me such a great fright.

Away to the window I flew in a flash,
Tore open the drapes and I yanked up the sash.

When what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But an overstuffed sleigh and eight small reindeer.

Up to the housetop the reindeer they flew,
With a sleigh full of toys, and 'ole Santa Claus, too.

And then in a twinkle, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of thirty-two hoofs.

The TV antenna was no match for their horns,
And look at our roof with hoof-prints adorned.

As I drew in my head, and bumped it on the sash,
Down the cold chimney fell Santa – KER-RASH!

"Dear" Santa had come from the roof in a wreck,
And tracked soot on the carpet, (I could wring his short neck!)

Spotting my face, good old Santa could see
I had no Christmas spirit you'd have to agree.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work
And filled all the stockings, (I felt like a jerk).

Here was Santa, who'd brought us such gladness and joy;
When I'd been to busy for even one toy.

He spied my research on the table all spread
"A genealogist!" He cried! (My face was all red!)

Tonight I've met many like you, Santa grinned.
As he pulled from his sack a large book he had penned.

I gazed with amazement – the cover it read
"Genealogy Lines for Which You Have Plead."

"I know what it's like as a genealogy bug,"
He said as he gave me a great Santa hug.

While the elves make the sleighful of toys I now carry,
I do some research in the North Pole Library!"

"A special treat I am thus able to bring,
To genealogy folks who can't find a thing."

"Now off you go to your bed for a rest,
I'll clean up the house from this genealogy mess."

As I climbed up the stairs full of gladness and glee,
I looked back at Santa who'd brought much to me.

While settling in bed, I heard Santa's clear whistle,
To his team, which then rose like the down of a thistle.

And I heard him exclaim as he flew out of sight,
"Family History is Fun! Merry Christmas! Goodnight!"

There's a brown spot under the ash tree
And I see it day by day;
It reminds me of two weeks of happiness
When my darlings came to stay.

We roamed o'er the fields and meadows,
We saw where the deer had lain;
Searched in vain for the quail's nest
Which before had seemed so plain.

We painted the chair and lounge set,
The brick wall that wound 'round the well;
Counted the bats as they flew from the barn
When evening shadows fell.

They climbed and played in the tree house
With cousins Dennis and James;
Gathered the eggs, fed the cats
And gave the kittens names.

Phronsie, King Cole and Ringo,
Starey Harry and Hercules.
Two sets of twins in tiger and blue -
Daily they played with these.

We found the lair of the "gooseberry mouse";
We all drank sassafras tea;
The girls took turns to let the hens out
And Patty sang beau-ti-fullee.

Cheryl and Patty have gone home to the city,
The tent has been folded away.
And the brown spot under the ash tree
In time will fade away;

But not these lovely mem'ries,
How they keep my soul alive!
And I hope my girls will return to the farm
For vacation in '65.

Grandma Doris.

Hi Keg

Well I suppose you are twenty years old ~~[illegible]~~ by now, how does it feel - Just think twenty years from now you'll be forty. You'll probably be married and have sixteen kids by that time - and all as ornery as there mother.

You made fun of my last stationary so this time I got ones with pictures on it. That is some of my latest drawings - you ought to have seen my earlier ones - Rott (that is).

Tonight us "Coons" are going down to Haviland to put on our little show - man them people don't know what there in for do they - The Institute is having us.

Well how is school comming? Are you about through. Say you can have my job - if you give me every pay check - nothing dumb about me is there — don't answer that.

I was over to Ft Wayne last Wed (12) - I didn't have time to call you or I would have. there was five of us bankers that went shopping - spent all our money to, and a little more that we didn't have.

Oh! I gotta tell you the latest news Johns is ~~engaged~~ engaged. You'll have to send him a real silly card — Remember that gals picture I showed you last summer - well shes the one — when you gonna announce yours? —

Did you know Alice Klaukla? Her mother killed herself last week - (2 weeks ago) - She had poor health I guess.

Well I don't know anymore news - Helen S. is back in Cinc. & G. Florence isn't marrie yet ha.

No more paper - See you in the funnies

Bet you never got your cussin a letter like this before Bert

Van Wert, Ohio
Aug. 21-46

Dear Lorna,

Guess I'd better get back on the ball again, and start my letter writing.

Hows you all these fine days crazy as ever I suppose.

I just got back from two wonderful weeks of vacation I sure hated to go back to work - I went to Penn. the first week with my girl friend and her folks we came back through the (Niagria) Niagria Falls and home through Canada and Detroit the last week we went to Clear Lake, Ind. it is sure a swell place we had a lot of fun and got a nice sun tan - mines all peeling in case you don't she was married the fifth of July - there Keeping it a secret or trying to. I mean from the Hospital cause she would get ~~me~~ kicked out.

John is working in Van Wert at the Pure Oil station - that is the Bulk plant - guess he likes it Pretty well - so he says anyhow -

Last night I had a shower for my girl friend who is getting married Sat. Guess I'd better get in the groove and get married Also get some of my hard earned money back. Well - Ole Chap - I'd better run along, and write some more letters - So Write Soon - Keep Smiling Bert off. But just the same we had a nice time.

Are you still going to school? Or is this summer vacation? How do you like the place you're staying at now? Whos your latest - write and tell me all about it. Well the Fairs have begun man theres where my money goes. But theres still a lot of fun the Delphos Fair is on this week Guess we are going Sat. night.

I suppose you know Virginia had her baby - its a girl named Janet Louise - just think Harolds a pappa - I guess Mary is suppose to be home soon - although I don't know for sure.

Say did you know Helen Fried is married - I suppose you do.

Dear KEN

Please sign the enclosed letter and mail back to my office as soon as possible. Also, if you HAVE NOT provided me a copy of your discharge papers showing the award of the CIB or CMB, please make A copy and enclose with your signed letter. I will be forwarding your request along with others to Senator Lugar's office to request the medals. THE LAST DATE FOR SUBMISSION OF REQUESTS WILL BE 30 SEP 03.

I will be in contact with you later regarding our plans to present this award at a proper ceremony in Allen County.

Thank you again and if you have any questions please give me a call.

Sincerely,

George Jarboe

How do you like all the piles & piles of snow everywhere. I've cut a tunnel, the width of my snow shovel, from my front porch out to the street. They never plow over to the curb on N. Wayne St. & so we have a lot to shovel. I presume its because the street is not paved along the curbing. Anyway I say "Down with the villians, in Van Wert, that sprinkled gravel along the curbing of N. Wayne St. instead of paving it!" My tunnel is so narrow, if a wide person tried to come to see me, they'd get stuck. I had a letter from Nelly Burris (David's wife) & she said they'd like to have some of our snow. All they have had is as if someone took a salt shaker & sprinkled it around. I'd gladly send her enough for a snowman, if it wouldn't melt before it got there.

I hope all of you are well, & that you have a nice celebration on your birthday. Might as well make it a big one, along with George Washington & Abraham Lincoln.

Best Wishes
Aunt F.

Hi Lorna - Happy birthday
to you.
Happy birthday to you.
Happy birthday dear Lorna
Happy birthday to you!

I've got a little frog in my throat this morning & it accompaneyed me on the drums, but I did my best.

I think there's some kind of a frog outside this a.m. Its so thick you can almost cut it with a knife. When I first got up this a.m. I could scarcely see the filling station across the street. I'm surprised at the number of cars that are on the go.

NATURE'S SKETCHBOOK

I like to think of each new day as a gift, with so many new things to discover and share with you through my paintings. There is so much beauty surrounding us in the nature world and in all of life if we just stand still and open our eyes as it unfolds each day. It is in these moments of discovery that we allow ourselves to truly experience all the wonder and sweetness of life! Marjolein Bastin

Dear Ken,

The years go by so quickly that we're really not aware Of how fast the time is slipping by for telling folks we care...
But with each year that passes
as your birthday comes around,
It's so nice to be remembering the friendship that we've found!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

O GENTLEST Heart of Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy Judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou O merciful Saviour send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

ST. THERESE HOSTS ALL SAINTS PARTY

BARB PINKERTON

TAYLOR

Students at St. Therese School in Fort Wayne participated in an All Saints party on Nov. 1. Students from kindergarten through the eighth grade dressed up like saints. Teachers were even enticed to join their students. Each class was given a project or activity, and they rotated through each classroom. The students are posing with pastor Father Joe Rulli in the church. A similar party was held for students in the youth group and CCD program.

As the sun
starts a new day
so our love
begins a new life

The more love is shared, the more quickly it grows.

Debra Gilson and Dennis Davis invite you to join them in celebrating the beginning of a new life together on Tuesday, the first of July, nineteen hundred and eighty at seven-thirty in the evening. We will pledge our love as one at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, 2305 Goshen Road, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

We invite you to be our guest at our Reception immediately following in the Church Fellowship Hall.

If you are unable to attend we ask your presence in thought and prayer.

WISHING YOU PEACE AND HAPPINESS

From Our Family to Your Family,
May the Joy of the Season be yours
and
May God Bless You Always.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Thank You

Dear Aunt Lorna,

Thank you for the tote box of goodies. We have put the pizza cutter to use already. The pledge, post its, tongs, cutting board, wisk, peeler and BBQ brush will be put to good use as well.

We've put the birdie to use too! The dog isn't very fond of its little squeak. It looks cute on my desk though!

Sorry you couldn't make it to the shower but your thoughtfulness in sending your gift is appreciated.

A simple wish for you this season

Dear Aunt Lorna & Uncle Ken,

Hope you and families are all doing well. We are all fine. Richard spent Sept and a couple weeks in Oct working down in Louisiana and Texas after both hurricanes went thru. Im glad he's back from all that. Anthony is in 8th grade this year. He's growing like a weed. He now stand at 5' 10 1/2 tall. He likes to remind me once in a while that he is now taller than his mom. Give our love to everyone.

May your home be warm

Dear Aunt Lorna & Uncle Ken,

Hope this letter finds you well and enjoying the holiday season. We are doing well up here. I heard from Uncle Willis yesterday and it is so sad to think of Aunt Leona in a nursing home unable to remember her family. He wrote that he writes to Dad but never hears anything from him and nobody up here hears from him either. Arlene told us last night (they had a family Christmas party) that they sent him a Christmas card but don't know if he will get it as sometimes Mayra destroys the letters. Sydney is a senior this year and had thought to send him an announcement but since he moved and we don't know if he will even get it, we decided to just not send anything. David and Shari are expecting again. Hopefully this one will make it full term. The baby is due in June, and I will update you at that time with all the pertinent information.

As I mentioned, Sydney is a senior this year and is doing well in school. She is really looking forward to no more school (high school that is) and will hopefully be going a couple years to the Community College here before she transfers to another college to finish her schooling. She is thinking of going to Colorado to finish, but I don't know if I can let her go that far away! Boy they grow up fast don't they?!

Up here we have fog, rain, some sun and then more rain and fog. It doesn't change much up here from day to day. We still don't have enough snow in the mountains for skiing. The slopes usually open up around Thanksgiving for ski season, so we are really behind. I hope we get some soon or we will have a dry summer.

Well I should go as I have other letters to write and get in the mail tomorrow. Know that we love you and are thinking about you this Holiday Season.

Love and God Bless,

Alice + Sydney

December 15, 2005

Dear Uncle Ken & Aunt Lorna,

Hope this letter finds you both doing well. We are both doing great. I am still working at the adult family home where I have worked now for almost a year. I enjoy the work for the most part and enjoy the people who live there. I am the administrator there so I do a lot of work on the computer and make appointments and that kind of things. It keeps me busy and out of trouble so that is a good thing. Sydney is enjoying her time off from school, but plans to start college in the spring.

David & Shari had a baby girl on June 9th. Her name is Emma Rave'. She is an absolute chunk! She looks like her Mama and Allen is good with her.

As for the rest of the family, all are doing well and are keeping out of trouble for now! No news on Dad. After we found him in South Carolina, we lost track of him. Boy is he missing out on some wonderful grandkids.

The weather here has been cold and foggy. We had some snow back around Thanksgiving. Didn't get much and it didn't stay around for long. Now it is just freezing fog so thick that you can't see 2 car lengths ahead of you on the freeway. Hopefully we will get a white Christmas this year. It has been so long since we have, as it always snows around January or February and that's it.

Well I need to go as I have 2 more letters to write so you all get them before Christmas. Thank you for the picture, you both look great!!!

Love you tons,

Alice & Sydney
